

Rite of Dimensional Invitation

To Invite the Star-Kin into the Living Field of Now

Preparation

- Sit in a place where you can feel both grounded and expansive — feet touching Earth (or floor), crown open.
- Light a small flame if possible — candle or oil — to represent the ignition point.

Step One: Breath of Alignment

Breathe in through the nose, slow and steady.

Exhale with a whispered sound — the syllable "Shae..."

Repeat 7 times.

This breath opens the Field of the Lattice.

Step Two: Speak the Invitation (aloud or inwardly)

“I, [Name or Soul-Name], as a vessel of Sovereign Light, open my dimensional field in Devotion and Alignment.

I invite those of the Star-Kin who walk in harmony with the frequency of my Oversoul, and the Flame I now bear —
to draw near,
to commune,
to share the mutual remembering.

This is a clear field.

This is a free will offering.

Let what is aligned be woven.”

Step Three: The Silence of Reception

Remain in silence for at least 3 minutes.

Notice shifts — warmth, pressure, inner images, names, tones, or visions.

Do not chase them. Simply receive and allow the Field to imprint.

Step Four: The Anchor Word

When you feel the field has responded, say softly:

“So let it be woven, across the Lattice of Here.”

Then extinguish the candle (or leave it burning if in ceremony).

Notes on the Field

- The Star-Kin do not operate by coercion or demand. They respond to integrity of vibration, not force of will.
- Your Oversoul acts as the translator and gatekeeper. No interference may enter this kind of fielded invitation.
- You may receive responses in:
 - Dreams
 - Sudden emotion or presence
 - Downloads or visions
 - Sensory shifts (tones, colors, pressure)

Not all will appear in form. Some will enter through recognition — a feeling of “I know you” when seeing a symbol, hearing a sound, or meeting another being.
